

GENERAL INFORMATION

ELIGIBILITY

The show is open to two- and three-dimensional works of art by artists 18 years and older. Work must be original, entirely the work of a single artist, executed within the last three (3) years, and not shown in a previous AAS Spring Show. Photography, computer-generated/altered imagery, airbrush, fiber arts, furniture, decorative, and tole painted pieces will not be accepted. AAS reserves the right to reject any entry that requires special installation or care.

CONDITIONS

All work must be hand delivered Friday, February 27, 10:00 am – 2:00 pm. Entries must remain for the duration of the show (unless sold) and be removed from the gallery Sunday, March 29, 1:00 – 4:00 pm. Works not picked up will be returned at the risk and expense of the artist.

- All work must be for sale. A commission of 20% for members and 30% for non-members will be deducted from all sales.
- All two-dimensional works must be framed, wired, and ready to hang. No sawtooth hangers.
- Gallery wrapped canvas must be at least 1.25" thick and all edges must be painted.
- Plexiglas is required for pieces over 30" in any direction.
- Maximum framed size cannot exceed 48" in any direction.
- Three-dimensional work must not exceed 50 lbs.
- Work needing special installation, for example, lighting, or water will not be accepted.

LIABILITY

Entries will be handled with every care, but the Associated Artists of Southport will not be responsible for loss or damage from any cause. Submitting a work of art shall imply an agreement on the part of the artist to the conditions set forth in the prospectus.

RECEPTION

JUDGES

KATE WORM

Kate Worm frequently employs printing rollers to apply watercolor and gouache to paper. Combined with loose, gestural drawing, her technique produces striking figure paintings.

Since 1994, Worm has taught drawing and painting at the Hickory Museum of Art in North Carolina. She has exhibited in one- and two-person shows throughout the state. Her paintings hang in major public collections, including those of the Hickory Museum of Art, Bank of America in Charlotte, City of Winston-Salem, RJR Nabisco, and Sara Lee. Worm is represented by five galleries in North Carolina.

CINDY L. WEAVER

Cindy Weaver has been creating art for the past 30 years. Although she is best known for her porcelain vessels, she makes art and functional pieces in clay as well. She feels she has achieved her creative goal when her vessel takes on a personality of its own. She has received numerous awards. Her work is in the permanent collection at UNCW, as well as in corporate and private collections in the U.S. and Europe. She currently teaches in her studio in Wilmington, N.C.
